Bailey Kennedy plays Santa for the Holidays
Law Firm donates hundreds of presents to families affected by childhood cancer

LAS VEGAS, NV (December 2013) For its third consecutive year, Law Firm Bailey Kennedy supported the Candlelighters Childhood Cancer Foundation of Nevada by purchasing, donating and wrapping hundreds of gifts for families affected by childhood cancer. Throughout the month of December, employees of the firm worked diligently, volunteering their time and money to shop for and wrap gifts for the families.

The “Adopt a Family” program was created in the hopes of assisting families whose children had been diagnosed with cancer and were going through treatment to help alleviate both the financial and emotional stress that the holiday season may cause a family.

“The generosity and the kindness that the families receive from their ‘adopter’ renew both their strength and spirit to continue the cancer journey with their child,” Said Danielle Munao, Family Services Director of Candlelighters. “ So many of the parents have shared with me after the holiday how much it meant to them that complete strangers cared so much about their family to make sure that their children had the best Christmas. They are reminded that they are not alone during this difficult time in their lives.”

Candlelighters Childhood Cancer Foundation of Nevada is a non-profit agency that provides support and services for families of children diagnosed with cancer. Candlelighters serve approximately 100 families monthly, and as many as 600 families throughout the year. Children from birth to 21 years of age who have been diagnosed with cancer or who have survived cancer are eligible for services if they are living or being treated in Nevada.
